

7 Salvador Dolly

Salvador Dolly was a famous artist. He painted pictures about his experiences. He told this story about his painting:
 This painting is about an experience that I had. It started raining hard. First it rained cats and dogs. Then it rained shoes and socks. In the end, it rained little men. Some of the little men were wearing hats and some were carrying umbrellas.

Answer the questions in full sentences.

- 1 How many little men are there in the painting?
- 2 How many little men are wearing hats?
- 3 How many little men are carrying umbrellas?
- 4 How many little men are not wearing hats or carrying umbrellas?
- 5 What fraction of all the little men are wearing hats?
- 6 What fraction of all the little men are carrying umbrellas?
- 7 What fraction of all the little men are not wearing hats or carrying umbrellas?

8 Adverbs

Adverbs tell us about verbs (action words). Adverbs explain how, when, where, or how much something is happening.

how	when	where	how much quickly	yesterday	here	almost
slowly	now	there	completely
fast	early	everywhere	little loudly	late	near	very
softly	soon	inside	totally
easily	today	outside

Write the sentence and read the question. Underline the adverb.

- 1 The grasshopper jumped quickly.
How did the grasshopper jump?
- 2 The grasshopper chirped loudly.
How did the grasshopper chirp?
- 3 Toad kindly invited the grasshopper to come and eat at his house.
How did Toad ask the grasshopper?
- 4 Grasshopper arrived at Toad's house yesterday.
When did Grasshopper arrive at Toad's house?
- 5 Toad angrily asked Grasshopper not to make a noise.
How did Toad ask Grasshopper?
- 6 Grasshopper could not eat quietly. How could Grasshopper eat?
- 7 Grasshopper politely asked Toad to his house.
How did Grasshopper ask?
- 8 Grasshopper carefully made food.
How did Grasshopper make the food?
- 9 Grasshopper quietly asked Toad to wash his paws.
How did Grasshopper ask Toad?

